Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 14-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. In claim 14, on line 2, "a jacket having one of sleeve and no sleeves" is indefinite since it is unclear as to what the metes and bounds are of the patent protection as desired.

Correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 13-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated as understood by Keyes (US 5,500,952). Keyes discloses an inflatable garment (12) having a plurality of active protecting means for the upper part of the body against traumas and falls that extends from one side to the other of the chest above the sternum, col. 3, line 6 – col. 4, line 60 and as shown in figure 3. Further, the plurality of active protecting means consist of air bags (22), col. 5, lines 61-

67 and as shown in figure 4. Additionally, device (30) in the garment allows the air bags to inflate by electronic means (32) in response to signals emitted by sensors (32), col. 6, lines 22-30 and as shown in figure 6. The airbags are arranged in the garment which has releasable flaps (14,16) defining a front opening that is offset from the center line therebetween as shown in figure 2. Also, the garment has a support means (44) defined as a band therewithin that is joined to the inside by housing device (30) and electronic means (32) as shown in figures 6 and 7.

5. Claims 13-14,16-21 and 25-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated as understood by DeMarco (US 4,977,623). DeMarco discloses an inflatable sleeveless jacket (10) having a plurality of active protecting means for the upper part of the body against traumas and falls that extends from one side to the other of the chest above the sternum, col. 1, lines 5-55 and as shown in figure 2. Further, the plurality of active protecting means consist of air bags (12) being positioned on the back and the chest, col. 3, line 30 and as shown in figure 2. Additionally, device (14) housed within the garment allows the air bags to inflate by electronic means (28) in response to signals emitted by sensors (16,18), col. 3, lines 30-67 and as shown in figure 4. The airbags are arranged in the garment defining flaps that are releasable fastened together by a zipper as shown in figure 1. Furthermore, the garment can consist of a suit as shown in figure 3.

Response to Amendment

6. The amendment and argument filed on 6/5/07 has been considered. In view of such, the amendment with new claims has necessitated this office action to be made FINAL over prior art of record and the arguments are moot.

Conclusion

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

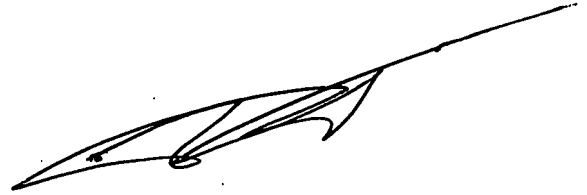

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to Applicant's disclosure.
